	REPORTS
Friends of the Library	Mr. Dishon: The next meeting of the RPL Friends of the Board is the December 6, 2017. No report given.
Library Foundation	<ul> <li>Ms. Hansen:</li> <li>The Foundation is currently sending out annual fund letters for the end of year appeal.</li> <li>The Finance Committee is reviewing the audit and 990 form. For the two years that the Foundation had invested funds, there has been an overall 19% rate of return; for the current year it is just under 7%.</li> <li>The Foundation recently received an anonymous donation of almost $40,000 that is for the creation of an adult author event that will bring a well-known author to the Richmond Public Library. More details will follow after Mr. Firestine and Mr. Dishon meet with the donor to begin planning. There was a suggestion to having Children authors to be a part of the event.</li> </ul>
Administration	Highlights of Director's Report:  There was no November meeting in November. Mr. Firestine started with the Director's Report of the activities from October 26 through December 1, 2017. He then discussed the accomplishments for 2017, sharing the focus on books and materials and increasing hours of operations at each site.

Staff Updates:

- 1. Simms Toomey was appointed to Interim for Beverly Mitchell who recently retired.
- 2. Jennifer Duell was appointed to Interim for Young Adult Services at Main.
- 3. Adam Zimmerli was hired as the Library/Community Services Manager East End.
- 4. In the hiring process for two Library Assistants II West End.
- 5. In the recruiting process for four Library Associate I positions.
- 6. Challenges with the HR Liaison position Over qualified candidates applying for entry-level position.
- 7. Using provisional and temporary staff to back fill until positions are filled.

Build, RVA: A MakerSpace, Co-Working Community wanted to do a partnership with the City Library in applying for a grant. Due to time constraints and information needed, there was not enough time to complete the grant this year. The Library is still pursuing the partnership by having a clear strategy with the organization before going after future grants.

Coding Program: A program was developed to teach coding to 10 year olds.

Policies: Computer and Acceptable Internet Use Policy – Mr. Firestine recommended by removing the words "and in good standing" will allow patrons to use the computers even if they have an outstanding fee. Removing the sentence "Use of the 15-minute express stations does not count against the daily session limit" will update wording since the library does not have any existing 15-minute express stations. Bringing policies up-to-date should eliminate conflict at the front desk. Voting on the policy was moved to the end of the meeting.

Mr. Firestine is in the process of reviewing all other policies to make up-to-date changes if needed. He will bring to the Board for approval.

Holiday Closings: The Board reviewed the 2018 RPL Holiday Schedule, which follows the City of Richmond's days off. Mr. Firestine corrected the Staff Development Day to be Monday, October 8, 2018.

The Board had an in-depth discussion of the library should or should not follow the City's four consecutive days closed during the Christmas holiday and January 1-2 for the 2018 New Year's holiday. A vote was moved to the end of the meeting.

Integrated Library System (ILS): Mr. Firestine presented an estimated timeline for an ILS Request for Proposal (RFP). This RFP is for updating the Library's existing vendor software or go with a new vendor.

Payment Card Industry (PCI) Data Security Standards: The City is not PCI compliant, because it does not have a secure network to process payment. DIT and Finance will meet in January 2018 with the other agencies to discuss becoming PCI compliant. PCI compliant will allow the Library to accept credit card payments.

Edge Survey – Urban Library Council: Mr. Dishon is putting a committee together and will bring updates to the Board when applicable.

	BOARD COMMITTEE REPORTS
Chairman	Ms. Zwirner: Attended the Development Committee meeting on November 16, 2017. This was the first meeting of the new Committee. Waiting back to hear from Mr. Firestine on the CIP, then the Committee will focus on new direction to pursue.
	Would like to prepare a demo or some type of presentation for District Meetings. Ms. Zwirner will contact district representatives and coordinate with Branch Managers to see what they are doing for the various district meetings; not to duplicate efforts.
Finance	Continuing to prepare for the 2019 Proposed Budget. Budget input is due December 8, 2017
Facilities	No report given.
Governance	Mr. Lydiard – Mr. Butterfield and Mr. Yates' first term ends June 30, 2018. By-laws are consistent with other libraries.
	UNFINISHED BUSINESS

January 10 DIT project review of SIRSI RFP

Staff Update: Youth Services Associate I's hired Heather Mire at Westover Hills, Anne Hayes at East End, Lisa Koleszar at Broad Rock. Jonah Butler and Jewel Murray were hired to be Library Assistant II's at West End. Patty Parks will be the Outreach and Engagement Librarian fulfilling a goal in the 2016-2021 RPL Strategic Plan.

Envisionware E-payment update: Finance and DIT have approved the library to proceed with electronic payment project. There were network security concerns that delayed the project. Those concerns have been addressed and the library is back on track to provide patrons with the ability to pay a fine through credit or debit card in the library and online through the library catalog. Our goal is to test at Main by the beginning of February.

SIRSI RFP update: On January 10 a DIT project committee reviewed the SIRSI RFP request and approved it to be moved forward and endorsed by City DIT. Procurement is processing the RFP.

Homeward Pilot Project: RPL will work with Homeward to address needs of the homeless patrons at the Main Library. Homeward has provided the Main Library with a locked mobile telephone charger. Patrons may safely charge their phones in a locker. At the charger station there will be information to connect those with Housing Crisis Line which is a service to help homeless. Homeward will provide funding to have the services of a social worker in the library to help identify and get people in need of services help.

Mary Morton Parsons Special Funds Request: On January 8, 2018 Richmond City Council approved the ordinance authorizing the funds be received from the Foundation into City Special Funds.
